The official returns from sixty counties in Ohio, and semi-official from the other twenty-eight, give Robinson, for secretary of state, 11,821 over Newman. For member of the board of public works, Flickinger, Republican, has 17,125 over his Democratic opponent. The returns on Congressmen show a Republican plurality in the state of nearly 20,000, which, however, anything else, represents the relative strength of the two parties in the state.

West Virginia. In their great desire to divert attention from the terrible and crushing defeat they received in Ohio, the Democrats have been making a great fuss over what they call their "great victory" in West Virginia. They have been claiming a majority of 10,000, but as the returns on these figures have dwindled until a paltry 4,000 is all that remains. In 1890 the Democrats carried the state in October by 16,135. The "guins" must accordingly be very flattering to the Democratic heart.

tax die. Chicago Times. Tax course of slavery has poisoned the blood and rotted the bone of the Democratic party. Chicago Times. Tax course of slavery has poisoned the blood and rotted the bone of the Democratic party. Chicago Times.

This Democratic pretend to be satisfied with Ohio. The Republicans are, certainly, very well satisfied with it. It is the only thing about which the two parties appear to have agreed since the campaign opened. Tax Democratic theory is that the Ohio Republicans suffered a great defeat in carrying the state by 10,000 majority. Suppose the Republicans had lost the state by 10,000, what would the Democrats have called that?

John Purkin, it will be remembered, held his antagonist down by firmly insinuating his nose between the fellow's teeth. The Democrats in Ohio are boasting of their ability to do the same thing with the Republicans. If they are proud of that sort of thing, why need complain?

In October, 1878, the Republicans carried Ohio by a plurality of 6,233, making a gain of 20,033 over the vote of the previous October. That was a great victory. In 1881 the Republicans carry the state by a majority of 10,000 or 12,000, making a gain of 25,000 over the previous October. This is the Democrats tell us, the new thing to a Waterloo.

In Ohio there is a population of 2,400,000, and 54,000 persons above the age of 10 years are unable to read and write. This makes a little over one-third of the total population who are illiterate. In West Virginia the population is 428,000, with 52,000, or one-eighth of the whole, who are unable to read and write, while 85,000 persons over 10 years of age, or one-fifth of the entire population, can not write their names. Why Ohio should be a Republican state and West Virginia a Democratic state is sufficiently explained by these facts.

Mr. Blaine had a magnificent reception at Flint, Mich., yesterday. He spoke at greater length than usual, and in the course of his remarks took occasion to refer to the trumped-up charge that he was a Know Nothing in 1855. Referring to the inquiries he had received from many parts of the country as to the truth of the charge Mr. Blaine said:

Let me say in full and explicit reply to these inquiries by letter and telegraph that I never was a member of the Know-Nothing order, that I never voted for a man who was nominated by it, either for a state or national office, and that instead of supporting Illinois in 1855 when I was a young man, I was a member of the Free-Soil party, and was a member of the National Republican Convention which nominated Gen. Fremont in 1856, and as the then and now a member of the Know-Nothing party, he will be able to bear testimony that however ineffectual my support may have been it was very earnest and very ardent. I knowed nothing of it, and then the journal editor of the Kenosha Journal, and the paper was entirely devoted to giving him the largest majority ever cast in Blaine for a President. The Know-Nothing order holds views in regard to immigration and naturalization with which I never had any sympathy, and for which I never intended to express dissent.

The Republican Victory in Newark. In the Newark charter election on Tuesday the Republicans elected their city ticket by a majority of 1,051, a Republican gain of 2,287 over last year, when Haynes (Democrat) was elected by 530 Republican majority. Last year the Democrats carried the Common Council and Board of Education, and proceeded to convert the city departments into a partisan machine. With a partisan police force and the whole patronage of the city in their hands, and with unlimited use of money, they were unable to carry more than five of the fifteen wards on the general ticket this year, and they elected only seven Aldermen, two of whom would have been defeated but for the Republican dimensions in the wards in which they ran. The Republicans elect eight Aldermen, and have a majority of four in the Common Council; they elect ten School Commissioners—a gain of four—giving them control of the Board of Education; and by electing ten Freeholders they make a gain of two in the Board, and have an increased majority. The total vote [polled was: Republican, 13,406; Democrat, 11,145. The Republican gain over last year is 3,076, and the Democratic gain 793; net Republican gain, 2,287.

The Buffalo "Reformer." Notwithstanding the fact that Grover Cleveland while sheriff of Erie county, New York, drew pay for more days than are contained in a calendar year, the total amount of tax he has paid in the county during his entire life is but $100.12. This is a smaller sum than he filched from the county treasury by fraud. In 1883 he was assessed on his personal property. His law partner sought to obtain remission of this tax on the ground that Mr. Cleveland was at that time a resident of Albany, where he was serving as Governor of the Great Empire State. Not until a levy was made upon his library was the tax paid. Yet this is the man Democrats class as a reformer. Grover Cleveland has used to reform not only his private habits but his entire moral nature before he may be classed in that category.

"Blatant" Over Ohio. The Chicago Times says the Democrats are "blatantly" elated over the capture of eleven Congressmen in Ohio. In view of the fact that there are thirteen Democrats in the present Ohio delegation in Congress—a clear loss of two members would not seem to be an inspiration to much joy. This result, when the outrageous cutting up and gerrymandering of the congressional districts for party advantage by the Democratic Legislature two years ago is taken into account, is not "a capture" to rejoice over, especially in view of the returns of the popular vote for members of Congress in all of the twenty-one districts at the recent election, which gives the Republicans about 20,000 majority of the aggregate. say nothing of the fact that even on the state ticket the Republicans have made a gain of at least 24,000 since last year, when Hon. H. H. Blaine, Democratic candidate for Governor, was elected by over 12,000 majority. If "the Democrats are greatly elated" over this state of things, they are like the boy who, having accidentally cut off his thumb with a hatchet, was "elated" because it wasn't his head.

Pon Picture of Blaine. A correspondent gives the following picture of Mr. Blaine: Physically he is a perfect man. He is a strong man, and it must be a good walk who can keep up with him. He is wonderfully preserved, and is just in the height of full physical strength. He does not know what fatigue is. He is in appearance a very striking man—large, full, straight and erect; an immense head; gray beard, cut close; hair full, whitening; and indeed nearly white and somewhat thin on the top of his head, and a fresh, eager, zealous face. This is as near as I can come to describing a man who is the first to attract attention wherever he goes.

That was About It. New York Star: It seems that Mr. Blaine's second trip to Ohio was merely designed to "round off the majority." The Ohio Republican Convention, which nominated Gen. Fremont in 1856, and as the then and now a member of the Know-Nothing party, he will be able to bear testimony that however ineffectual my support may have been it was very earnest and very ardent. I knowed nothing of it, and then the journal editor of the Kenosha Journal, and the paper was entirely devoted to giving him the largest majority ever cast in Blaine for a President. The Know-Nothing order holds views in regard to immigration and naturalization with which I never had any sympathy, and for which I never intended to express dissent.

SEVEN ROUNDS FOUGHT

Scientific 'Bout Between Mike Donovan and Arthur Watson, the English Pugilist.

The Killing of J. M. Faulkner, a White Convict by a Negro Guard—Rescued by the Police.

Mamma Is Killed—Whisky's Work—A Bootblack Suspected of Murder.

Fought Seven Rounds. New York, October 18.—Mike Donovan and Arthur Watson, the English boxer, fought seven rounds with small gloves for $500, at Toot Hall last night, 200 persons being present. The first five rounds showed some very scientific boxing, but the hitting was very light, the men apparently sparing for points. The spectators having seen enough of such work, became clamorous for something more of a fighting character. In the sixth round the men warmed up to their work, and some heavy hitting was indulged in. Donovan, by forcing the fighting and having decidedly the best of the round and the contest thus far. When time was called Watson was manifestly a defeated man, but the referee called for another round. In the seventh round Watson, exhausted as he was, showed himself to be a game and scientific fighter, but the superior generalship, stamina and science of his opponent proved too much for him, and Donovan was declared the winner. Blood was drawn in the last round. Watson was swinging his right arm catching Watson over the eye, cutting a gash two inches long.

It Was Murder. ALBANY, Ga., October 17.—A great sensation was created throughout the State a week ago by the killing of a convict in Lockett's Camp by a negro guard. The story, as then told, was that a party of armed convicts, all white, under guard of armed negroes, had been sent to the Chattahoochee River, when F. M. Faulkner jumped in the river and was shot at by the negroes. A negro, who was a member of the party, was found next day drowned with bullet wounds. The idea that even white convicts were placed under armed power of negroes in Georgia was justly regarded with indignation, which the press and people freely vented upon the convict losses. The Governor's jury found that the killing was justified, and the only response received was a charge of buckshot from a negro guard, which caused his death. Jackson has been arrested and is now in Fulton County Jail. The convict camp has always had a hard name. It is given as evidence of the treatment of convicts, that since February 1st, out of 150 convicts twenty have died.

The Defaulting Contractor Rescued by the Police. WILMINGTON, Mass., October 17.—Twenty picked policemen filling two omnibuses, left Boston at one o'clock this morning to rescue Contractor Dacey from the clutches of his unpaid Italian laborers, who are holding him for ransom. The police arrived at the place where the contractor was being held, and found him surrounded by a mob of men, some of whom were armed with revolvers and brandishing clubs. The surprised and frightened contractor was rescued, and taken to the police station. The men who were concerned in yesterday's capture of Dacey were locked up in the Poor House for further examination. Forty-nine others were allowed to escape. Dacey is uninjured.

"Mamma Is Killed." CINCINNATI, O., October 17.—At eight o'clock this morning a bullet, fired from the door of their house on Seventeenth street, near Greenup, Ky., crying "Mamma is killed." Neighbors rushed in and found Mrs. Madison lying on the floor, a bullet having struck her near the head and a rope with a hangman's knot tied around her neck. She was quite dead, but still warm. Her husband was sent for, and affected great grief at the tragedy. The police are investigating the affair.

Whisky's Work. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 17.—An investigation was begun to-day to fix the responsibility for the death of J. Wesley Allison, who was thrown from a buggy into Wissahickon Creek last evening and drowned. Allison was a son of W. C. Allison, the car-builder, and on account of mental trouble had been provided with an attendant for years. Yesterday he was found lying on the banks of the creek with Henry Hecht, the attendant. The latter was very drunk, and driving close to the bank upon the buggy, throwing Allison into the water. Hecht managed to scramble out, but his companion perished. Hecht is in custody.

A Bootblack Suspected of Murder. NEW YORK, October 17.—Considerable excitement prevails here over the generally accepted opinion that Jay Cook, a white bootblack, nineteen years old, deceased Jimmy Hymer, aged twelve, to a culvert in the Louisville & Nashville Hotel, near the city hall, and threw him in the culvert after robbing him of $50. The evidence obtained shows that Cook never had any money to speak of before the night the boy was murdered, and when he appeared in a new suit and got a $20 bill changed.

Three Indictments Against a Bank Teller. PETERSBURG, Va., October 18.—The Grand Jury yesterday found three indictments for fraudulent entries against W. W. Whyte, late teller of the broken "Western" and Mechanics' Bank. They will take up the proceedings against Whyte, the late cashier, on Monday.

Goons to Jail Again. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 18.—Vice Squad, who the notorious racketeers, arrested here a few days ago in the act of robbing garages, was yesterday convicted and sent to jail for one year. This is his second conviction here. He has served several terms in jail elsewhere.

Democratic Mass-Meeting. BALTIMORE, Md., October 18.—The Democratic mass-meeting at the city hall last night was one of the most stirring demonstrations of its kind ever held in Baltimore. The spacious hall was crowded to suffocation. Overflow meetings were held in front of the Opera-house on Rutaw street, the square between Baltimore and German streets, and the hall was filled with men representing every walk in life. The hall was handsomely decorated with the National colors and banners in profusion. Large numbers of Cleveland supporters, who were being driven out of the hall by the word "Victory," adorned the stage. The indoor meeting was presided over by J. Frank Morrison, who introduced the meeting in a new spirit, introducing as the first speaker, Senator Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware. The Senator's appearance was greeted with tremendous applause, and it was several minutes before he subsided sufficiently to enable him to begin his speech.

Mr. Bayard, during the course of his speech, referred to the election of Cleveland, and said that the result had been brought forth by the Republicans, and especially by their "head trumper" and "big game" of Cleveland in November. They had sung in advance of victory, but the music was already in a key and would soon sound to a wail. The result of the election was plainly this: that left to themselves, without the protection which the Government at Washington affords by bull-dogging, they would be a Democratic majority. As it is with everything that money, intimidation and fraud could do, the State of Maryland, which is a quarter of a century, has been barely kept in the ranks, and a majority which Blaine estimated from 20,000 to 40,000 is now barely 10,000. Mr. Bayard said that he would not make any assertions, but would declare that the result of the Ohio election would be to give Blaine a harder task to carry the State in November.

The other speakers were Hon. Perry Belmont, of New York; Hon. Henry S. Walker, of West Virginia, and Hon. John V. L. Lindsay, of Maryland. Republican Plurality 11,000. COLUMBIA, O., October 18.—All counties have been officially reported except Ashland, Van Wert and Wood. The latter's figures, moreover, give a Democratic majority of 400; a Republican gain of 192. As close an estimate as can be made makes the Republican plurality 11,000. The net Republican gain is likely to be nearly 25,000. Cleveland's majority will not be far from 16,000, running ahead of Robinson 4,000. The vote for Johnson shows that the action of the liquor laws was not considerable, what there was being counterbalanced by Democratic votes. There is no change in the Congressional struggle, the Democrats securing election members and the Republicans ten; the latter still not conceding the election of Warner and Ellsberry.

Cleveland Voted a Canon. ALBANY, N. Y., October 18.—Governor Cleveland arrived on the 7:45 train from York last evening. He proceeded immediately to the Executive Mansion, where he was met by a large number of his friends. He was then taken to the residence of his father, where he was met by his mother and sister. He was then taken to the residence of his father, where he was met by his mother and sister. He was then taken to the residence of his father, where he was met by his mother and sister.

West Virginia Election. WHEELING, W. Va., October 18.—Lator returns somewhat reduce the Democratic majority as estimated yesterday. It now looks as if 8,000 would be about the final result when the official returns are in. Official estimates from forty-seven of the fifty-four counties, give a net Democratic majority of 7,195. All seven counties of Boone, Calhoun, Clay, McDowell, Mingo, Putnam and Tucker will increase this about 1,000. The Supreme Judges, against whom such a relentless war was made, ran well up to the mark, and the Democratic majority probably have within 2,000 of Wilson's majority. Complete returns will not be forthcoming for a week or ten days.

New York County R. Elections. NEW YORK, October 18.—Senator Gibbs presided over the Convention of the County Republicans last night. All the lights of the party were present. On calling the roll of the delegates, there were 1,000 present in the Third, Fifth and Sixth Districts, and a committee was appointed to adjust them. An adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock, to await the action of the County Democratic, without any complications having been made.

Butler at Utica. UTICA, N. Y., October 18.—General Butler reached Utica at 7:25 last evening and proceeded at once to the Opera-house, where he spoke for two hours to a crowd of over 2,000 people. His political views were the same he has made in favor of other speeches in this vicinity.

Large Prohibition Meeting. NEW YORK, October 18.—A Prohibition mass-meeting to endorse the nomination of St. John and Daniel was held at Chickering Hall to-night. James Bogardus presided, and addresses were made by Dr. Dennis, of the Church of the Strangers, St. John, John B. Gould and others. The attendance was very large.

Going to Indiana. DETROIT, Mich., October 18.—The Blaine party reached here from Port Huron yesterday evening. Mr. Blaine occupied a private box at Whitney's Opera-house to-night. He leaves this morning for Indiana, reaching South Bend to-morrow evening. He remains over Sunday. Butler at Rome. ROME, N. Y., October 18.—General Butler arrived here at 2 p. m. He was met at the depot by a small delegation of sympathizers. He was driven to the Opera-house, where he spoke for an hour to a large crowd.

THROUGH A BRIDGE. A Number of Persons Killed and Wounded. BALTIMORE, O., October 18.—A 6 p. m. yesterday the middle span of the bridge across the east fork of the river on the Cincinnati & Eastern Narrow Gauge Railroad gave way, as the Manchester Express was passing over it. The bridge is fifty feet above the water. The engine, baggage-car and first coach were hurled to the water beneath, the rear car remaining on the sound portion of the bridge. The bridge was a fine specimen of the art of the time, and many made miraculous escapes, several leaping to the stream below. Following is a list of those injured: Engineer Ed Wilbur, Sardinia, fireman. Henry Jones, Manchester. WOUNDED. Samuel Carr, skull fractured, will die. Dave Hicks, badly scalded and leg broken; can not recover. Ben Moore, bruised about the head and shoulders. Thomas Taylor, nose broken and bruised about the head and shoulders. John Nash, brakeman, leg sprained. Mary Swallow, shoulders bruised. James McCoy, badly bruised about the head. Conductor Charles Durham, slightly injured. A number of others received trifling bruises.

The engineer and fireman were both killed instantly. They leave families. The bridge was being repaired, but was not ready to open for traffic. Loaded freight trains had passed over it a short time before.

National Democratic Address. NEW YORK, October 18.—In view of the result of the elections in Ohio and West Virginia, the National Democratic Committee yesterday issued an address to the people of the United States, which says that "we may confidently expect a majority in Ohio for Cleveland and Hendricks in November." The address states that the Blaine managers expended not less than $500,000 in Ohio and more than $100,000 in West Virginia in their political work; that they employed in political jobs the men engaged in the latter's schemes, moreover, give a Democratic majority of 400; a Republican gain of 192. As close an estimate as can be made makes the Republican plurality 11,000. The net Republican gain is likely to be nearly 25,000. Cleveland's majority will not be far from 16,000, running ahead of Robinson 4,000. The vote for Johnson shows that the action of the liquor laws was not considerable, what there was being counterbalanced by Democratic votes. There is no change in the Congressional struggle, the Democrats securing election members and the Republicans ten; the latter still not conceding the election of Warner and Ellsberry.

Neuralgia and Headache. Nothing is so terrible as severe neuralgia, and beyond a doubt gives as much pain as any other form of nervous disease. Headaches in a school girl usually mean exhausted nerve-power through over-work, over-excitement, over-anxiety, or bad air. Rest, a good night's sleep, or a country walk will usually cure it. If it recurs, however, with but to become subject to headaches is a very serious matter, and all such nervous diseases have a tendency to recur, to become periodic, and to set up a chain of nervous troubles. It is an organic habit of the body. For any woman to become liable to neuralgia is a most terrible thing. It means that while it lasts life is not worth living. It is a painful and never-ending work. It deprives her of the power to enjoy anything, it tends toward irritability of temper, it tempts to the use of narcotics and stimulants. So says Dr. Nelson, and so say I. A girl who thus herself, subject to neuralgia should at once change her habits if but to grow strong in body. Of what use is education with a weak mind? The Greek mother bore the finest children the world ever produced. Dr. Holbrook, in his great work on marriage and parenthood, gives a chapter on the (Greek) education of girls. He claims it comes very near to the education we need for our to-day, and we quite agree with him. It developed beautiful women, and their beauty lasted till old age. The beautiful Helen was not less than 60 years of age as at sixteen. —Do Lewis Monthly.

Opera Glasses!

COME IN AND SEE OUR OPERA GLASSES.

We can show you so much better selection than you can find elsewhere outside the large cities, that you will feel repaid. We have marked our entire fall line of Opera Glasses at a very close margin. We would rather sell 100 Glasses at a profit of fifty cents each than sell 50 (our usual fall stock) at a profit of one dollar each.

We don't think any one in Decatur has Opera Glasses for sale that would show them as cheap AS WE WILL OFFER THEM. Come in and see.

We shall continue to rent a very attractive and excellent glass at no higher rates than ever. Respectfully,

OTTO E. CURTIS & CO.,
